

October & November 2017

JAMES & AGAPE BERMEJO have been re-assigned to serve in Phnom Penh, Cambodia after exhausting all avenues of returning to Singapore. They arrive Oct. 3 and will work with Team Cambodia to develop national leaders and churches in the capital city. Pray for a smooth adjustment and fresh vision for ministry in a new country. Pray also for Julia Liles returning to Cambodia after a 2-month furlough in the UK.

much needed computer maintenance Ben did in the TCM office. They are back in Singapore now, looking for a suitable apartment to serve as a home base. They will visit TCM's work in Malaysia and Cambodia in October, and conduct survey trips to Vietnam and East Timor in November.

SALVINA ULFINDO rejoices in opportunities to share the Word through teaching English classes in Myanmar. She teaches a class for 14 seamen training to work on cruise ships, and just started a 2-month intensive class for 40 clients of a Learning & Development firm. She used the Creation Story from Genesis as the first reading activity! Pray for Salvina and colleagues Banacs and Improsos as they study the Burmese language.

after 2 years squeezed in a room where they couldn't even use instruments or a sound system in their worship services. Sept. 10, Pastor Mukuria's eldest daughter was murdered the day before she was to start classes at Egerton University. The police are still investigating the details. Last fall Pastor Mukuria's wife died of cancer, so he and his 2 younger children need our prayers.
