Message: Knowing the Mystery, Part 4: Pastor Don Hosfeld

Closing Prayer

Memory Verse

“Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself; that in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him”
(Eph. 1:9-10).

Communion is held the 1st Sunday of the month.

Board Meetings are held the last Sunday of each month

Welcome to Grace Bible Fellowship this morning. We are so glad that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are a first-time visitor, please sign our guest book in the entryway and take a gift bag home with you.

- Wednesday, 6:00 p.m. Bible study here at the church with Pastor Hosfeld. We are studying in the book of Genesis. Come prepared to learn from this foundational book in the Old Testament. .
- Thursday, 9:00 a.m. Because of the Covid-19 lockdown, Pastor Hosfeld is not able to continue with his ministries at Venetian Gardens and the prison at this time. Pray that these ministries will be opened up soon and that the people involved in them will have continued their studies on their own.
- Continue to pray for those on our prayer list; Pastor Bedore, Pastor Hosfeld and Valerie, Pastor Myers, Judy Piper, Howard and Virginia Tiffany, and Amanda Erdman. Keep Mike and Sharon Williams in prayer as they recover from their surgeries. Pray for Mike Gray as he had hip replacement surgery. Pray that the healing and rehab goes well. Continue to keep Valerie's father in prayer as he goes through his treatments.

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience experience; and experience hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us (Rom. 5:1-5).

Imminent

The word imminent is not actually found in our English Bibles, but is used to convey the Bible truth of the timing of the Rapture or “the catching away” of the Church, which is His Body. It is clear that it will one day happen, but we are not told when. The believer is to live his or her life in anticipation of Christ’s sudden appearing while zealously serving God out of love and faithful appreciation for the salvation that the Lord has provided by His grace (I Cor. 15:51-52; Phil. 3:20-21; I Thess. 4:13-18; Tit. 2:11-14). It could happen today. Have you put your trust in Jesus Christ alone for the forgiveness of sins and redemption? (Eph. 1:7; cf. I Cor. 15:1-4). If not, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved” (Acts 16:31).

When we speak of the “imminency” of Christ’s coming, we are referring to the fact that it could take place at any time. The word “imminent” means that something could take place at any time, not that it must necessarily take place right away. In general it can refer to something that is sure to take place or something that may never happen. For instance, we can say that a boat caught out in a storm is in imminent danger of capsizing. The boat may weather the storm but, if the wind continues to build and the waves grow larger, the chance of it being overcome by the raging sea will increase dramatically. Since at any time a large wave could swamp the boat or roll it over, we can say that the crew is in imminent danger, a danger that will exist until the storm subsides or the boat can enter the safety of a secure harbor. The general sense of imminency is something that could, and is likely to, happen.
