Communion is held the 1st Sunday of the month.

Board Meetings are held the last Sunday of each month

Welcome to Grace Bible Fellowship this morning. We are so glad that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are a first-time visitor, please sign our guest book in the entryway and take a gift bag home with you.

We will take two offerings this morning. The plate is for the general fund and the basket is for the Benevolence Fund.

REMEMBER the Winter Bible Conference, next weekend, Saturday, January 23rd and Sunday, January 24th 2021. Conference schedules and names of speakers are on the table in the entryway. Conference will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday the 23rd.

Mark your calendars: February 7th, 2021 will be our annual congregational meeting immediately after the worship service.

- Wednesday, 6:00 p.m. Bible study here at the church with Pastor Hosfeld. We are studying in the book of Genesis. Come prepared to learn from this foundational book in the Old Testament. .
- Continue to pray for those on our prayer list; Pastor Bedore, Pastor Hosfeld and Valerie, Pastor Myers, Judy Piper, Howard and Virginia Tiffany, Lou Ann Spaanem, Joy Czapski and Amanda Erdman. Keep Mike Williams in prayer as he continues to heal from the recent surgery on his foot. Continue to pray for Matt Piper, Judy's son.

“I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Gal. 2:20).

INTERESTING BIBLE FACTS

“The Great Agnostic and A Tale of the Christ”

One of Robert Ingersoll’s life missions was to shake peoples’ belief in the Bible and Christianity. Known as “The Great Agnostic”, he wrote several books that accused the Scriptures of being unreliable and Christianity of being superstitious nonsense. Inadvertently, however, he was influential in causing the popular novel, “Ben Hur: A Tale of the Christ” to be written. After a discussion with Ingersoll on their mutual animosity towards the Bible and Christianity, retired Civil War general Lew Wallace decided to do a study of the life of Jesus Christ and then write a book disproving the claims of the Bible and exposing Christianity as false. However, through his research on the historical background of the Bible and the reading of the Scriptures themselves, General Wallace became convinced that the Bible was true and Jesus Christ had been raised from the dead as Savior and Lord. Instead of refuting Christianity, he became a Bible believing Christian himself and wrote the popular pro-Christian novel “Ben Hur.” Although its subtitle is “A Tale of the Christ”, the Lord Jesus is not the main character. However, His influence on Ben Hur and others that He is periodically pictured as crossing paths with during His earthly ministry is accented to provide a historical and spiritual backdrop to the plot.
