Welcome to Grace Bible Fellowship this morning. We are so glad that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you are a first-time visitor, please sign our guest book in the entryway and take a gift bag home with you.

Today is Missions Sunday. We will take two offerings. The basket will be for Missions and the plate for the general fund. Thank you for your giving.

Thanks to all who prepared food for the fellowship dinner last Sunday and for the great time of fellowship that followed.

There will be no Bible study this Wednesday evening as that is the day we will be having pictures taken.

- Wednesday, 6:00 p.m. Bible study here at the church with Pastor Hosfeld. We are studying in the book of Genesis. Come prepared to learn from this foundational book in the Old Testament.
- Continue to pray for those on our prayer list; Pastor Bedore, Pastor Hosfeld and Valerie, Pastor Myers, Judy Piper, Howard and Virginia Tiffany, Lou Ann Spaanem, and Joy Czapski. Continue to pray for Matt Piper, Judy's son. If you know of anyone who you would like prayer for, please let the pastor know so we can put it in the bulletin. Pray for our missionaries as a lot of them are experiencing hard times in the countries that they are ministering in due to COVID.

“There is therefore no condemnation for them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death” (Rom. 8:1-2).

BIBLE WORDS

Preservation: This doctrine speaks of God's continuous sustaining, or constant maintenance, of the Creation. While Preservation cannot be separated from God's act of Creation, it is not the same thing but is a particular work or activity of God. The Creation and all of its properties and powers depend on God's work of Preservation (Neh. 9:6; Col. 1:16-17; Heb. 1:3). God's Preservation affects the entire Creation including the continuance of life (Job 12:10; Ps. 36:6; 145:14-16; Matt. 10:29-30; Acts 17:28). As They were in creating all things, all three Persons of the Trinity are involved in preserving the Creation and its order (Neh. 9:6; Ps. 104:27-30; 145:14-16; Matt. 10:29-30; Acts 17:28; col. 1:16-17; Heb. 1:2-3).

Important to Biblical prophecy is the fact that God preserves His national people, Israel (Gen. 50:20; Ex. 3:7-10; Deut. 1:30-31; 30:1-10; Josh. 2:4-17; II Sam. 7:10; II Kin. 19:1-37; Isa. 40:11; 45:17; 49:6; 63:9; Jer.31:3,7,35-37; Zech. 12:1-9; Rom. 11:1-7; 25:29).

God's Sovereignty in Preservation provides complete assurance for His people of the hope He has endowed them with through His Son, Jesus Christ (Rom. 5:1-5; 8:31-39; II Cor. 4:7-18).

Providence: Speaks of His continuing involvement with the Creation by which He works out His plans and purposes. This includes the events of the spiritual, physical, mental, and moral realms. Where Preservation is about what He does, Providence is about the manner in which He does it. Providence is closely related to God's Immanence, which has to do with His involvement with His Creation on a personal level.
