“Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith; not by sight): We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (II Cor. 5:6-10).

COMMON SAYINGS

“A House Divided Cannot Stand”

When accused of being empowered by Satan to be able to cast out demons, the Lord Jesus Christ replied, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls” (see Lk. 11:14-17ff). The meaning is pretty clear. If He was defeating demons by the power of Satan, then Satan would be fighting against his own army, which would only speed up his own final destruction. The Lord Jesus used this illustration to show the absurdity of the charges against Him. While the principle behind it is true, we must remember that Satan, at times, might put on a show to deceive people by allowing false teachers to “appear” to cast out demons from possessed people. In this case, the demons would go out at the command of the satanically influenced false teachers to make it seem like they are exercising power over the demons in order to help carry out Satan’s quest for spiritual domination of the world and the destruction of God’s people. The false teachers themselves may even be deceived by this Satanic ploy into thinking they have God’s power. Matthew 7:21-23 appears to be this kind of situation at the end of the Tribulation. The Apostle Paul warns us that in this present Dispensation of Grace to “be strong in the Lord and the power of His might” putting on the “whole armor of God” that we will “be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil” (Eph. 6:10-11). This is necessary because the battle we are in is not a physical conflict but a spiritual one (see Eph. 6:12-18).
