“Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph. 6:11-12).

Communion is held the 1st Sunday of the month

Board Meetings are held the last Sunday of each month

- Continue to pray for those on our prayer list; Pastor Bedore, Pastor Hosfeld and Valerie, Pastor Myers, Judy Piper, Howard and Virginia Tiffany, Joy Czapski, and Matt Piper. Pastor Bedore has improved immensely and is getting stronger every day. Continue to keep him in prayer. Please pray for LaNeave's niece, Hannah, who is in serious condition after giving birth to triplets.

“Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee” (I Tim. 4:13-16).

COMMON SAYINGS

“Hope Against Hope”

The idea behind the use of this phrase today is to desire something so much as to not give up the idea of getting it even when the chances against actually doing so are so tremendous as to appear impossible. “Even though the election returns were showing that the candidate was hopelessly behind his opponent, he held hope against hope for a last minute surge at the polls to make him the winner.” This saying is derived from Romans 4:18 where the Apostle Paul wrote that Abraham “against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many did not just hope it would happen or in his own ability to make it happen as so many do today. His hope was an expression of faith in the faithfulness of God who he believed could and would do as He had promised.
