BIBLE FACTS

“The Youngest King

Joash was only seven years old when He was placed on the throne of Judah. He reigned forty years, dying at the age of forty-seven (II Chron. 24:1). This same king is also referred to as Jehoash (II Kin. 11:21). After his father, Ahaziah, died, Joash's aunt Jehosheba saved him as a baby from being murdered by his own grandmother, Athaliah. Athaliah managed to kill all of the male heirs to the throne except Joash, who was hid away in the Temple until he was seven when Jehoiada the priest led a coup against Athaliah and made Joash king of Judah (II Kin. 11:1-16). While Jehoiada the priest was alive Joash served the Lord, but after his death he allowed idolatry to grow, bringing the wrath of God on Judah (II Chron. 24:17-18). He was murdered by his own servants after his larger army was defeated in battle by a much smaller Syrian force and he was left badly wounded (II Chron. 24:23-25).
