Closing Prayer

Scripture Reading

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph. 6:10-17).

BIBLE FACTS

“Dem Dry Bones”

Ezekiel, a priest and prophet of the Lord (Ezek. 1:1-3; 2:1-5), was given several important prophecies of the Last Days which included visions that were illustrative of the future events revealed to him. One of the most interesting was that of a valley filled with dried out bones. As the prophet looked at the vision, God asked him, “Can these bones live?” Ezekiel answered, “O Lord God, Thou knowest,” and the Lord then instructed him to preach to the dry bones, saying to them, “O ye dry bones, hear the Word of the Lord.” Ezekiel obediently did so and “the bones came together bone to bone”, were fleshed out and lived again. This prophecy, found in Ezekiel 37:1-4, pictures Israel in the Last Days who, being spiritually dead, will turn back to the Lord, be spiritually revived and physically delivered from her enemies and returned to her ancient homeland to serve as “the priest of the Lord” (Isa. 61:6) in the Millennial Kingdom. This remarkable prophecy, which could possibly be fulfilled in the not so distant future, is the basis of the old spiritual, “Dem Bones, Dem Bones, Dem Dry Bones.”
