Scripture Reading

“Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry” (II Tim. 4:2-5).

COMMON SAYINGS

“Seek and Ye Shall Find”

This saying comes from the mouth of the Lord Jesus in what has been called the Sermon on the Mount (see Matthew chapters 5 through 7). He said; “Ask and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you” (Mat. 7:7). The Lord was teaching on entering into the Millennial Kingdom in this long discourse. In this particular verse, he is stressing the importance of prayer and trust in God for the saints to survive in the Tribulation that will precede His Second Coming. Those who find themselves in the Tribulation will not be able to buy or sell unless they take the Mark of the Beast (Rev. 13:16-17). The believers who refuse the Mark will have only God to depend on for their sustenance.

The phrase is used in everyday language in a very general way in regards to solving a problem of some kind by asking for help to find a solution.
