BIBLE WORDS SALVATION

The meaning of the word is “deliverance” or “rescue” from some danger. There are at least four kinds of salvation found in Scripture; the national salvation of the nation of Israel; the physical salvation of persons in danger or need; the soul salvation of individual sinners; and the believers’ salvation from the power of sin and the schemes of the Devil. What we have in mind here is the salvation of souls from the penalty of sin, which is the most commonly recognized use of the term in the New Testament.

Salvation is a comprehensive term when used of the deliverance of souls from the awful penalty of sin, which is separation from God in the everlasting fires of Hell. The terms regeneration, conversion, imputed righteousness, justification, adoption, sanctification, ransom, forgiveness of sins, redemption, reconciliation, and glorification are all aspects of what takes place when an individual comes to faith in Jesus Christ and receives salvation through His blood. No person can be said to have any of these things true of them without having them all apply because they are interrelated to each other.

Every human being is in need of salvation because “all have sinned and come short of the glory of God” (Rom. 3:23). Man is worthy only of judgment. God sent His Son to become a Man and pay the penalty for sin that we owe that through faith in Him lost sinners might be saved. Salvation is not through any works or merit of any kind that a person has, but is dependent totally on the merit, or worthiness, of Jesus Christ and His work of redemption on the cross as our substitute. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast” (Eph. 2:8-9). “....Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved” (Acts 16:31).

When a person trusts in Jesus Christ as their Savior, they are forgiven of their sins, redeemed from the slavery of sin, declared righteous in God’s sight, and reconciled to God along with many other blessings of grace that are bestowed on him (or her) through his new personal relationship with the Lord. Every believer is indwelt by the Holy Spirit and personally identified with Jesus Christ and has an eternal inheritance in Him.
